The life of the lavish
I gave my all to this shit now I'm feeling like the game owe me
I got partners on partners who ain't nothin' [?] and they all ain't free
I gave my all to this shit now I'm feeling like the game owe me

I gave my all to this shit now I'm feeling like the game owe me
A hundred young niggas looking up to me for a way out and I feel like everyt hing on me
Lost some niggas to the streets and the chain gang, need a green dot, niggas
waiting on me
Yeah, my mama lost her job, daddy need a house, I ain't seen my kids, so dep ression weighing on me
I've been broke my whole life so 'til I get a bag it I ain't no sleep
I've been up seven days, this shit ain't for the weak
Bloody vessels in my eyes and this shit hurting me
Only the strong survive, I'm Hercules, Hercules
Hercules, Hercules
Only the strong survive I'm Hercules
Hercules, Hercules, Hercules
Only the strong survive I'm Hercules, Hercules

All the shit I do is on a daily basis
Can't run from it, nigga gotta face it
Home run hitter, touching all the bases
I got niggas with some million dollar cases
Mama lost her job I told her here vacation
I'm still homeless, sleeping in and out of basements
I'm still tryna figure how to feed my babies
I told my niggas don't give up on me I'm patient
And there's a whole lotta niggas I got waiting
That got they faith in me and hoping I make it
Drop to my knee, look at the sky and I'll pray
Drop to my knee, look at the sky and I'll pray, I said Lord Please give me guidance and strength to handle all this weight on my shoulde rs
Please God enlighten my visions so I can see shit that I probably been over

I gave my all to this shit now I'm feeling like the game owe me
A hundred young niggas looking up to me for a way out and I feel like everyt hing on me
Lost some niggas to the streets and the chain gang, need a green dot, niggas
waiting on me

Only the strong survive, I'm Hercules, Hercules
Hercules, Hercules
Only the strong survive I'm Hercules
Hercules, Hercules, Hercules
Only the strong survive I'm Hercules, Hercules

I've seen it with both my eyes, only the strong survive
Putting in overtime, working like all the time
I gave this shit all of me, I feel like it owe me somethin'
Niggas on side of me act like they ain't notice nothin'

It's ride or die with me, the reason I tote a gun
Can't get inside of me, ain't easy to show my love
Mama keep crying for me, she scared for her oldest son
A lot on my mind and I be ready to roll me one
All the losses I done took and all the shit that I done
I ain't had too many options but I had to pick me one
I done seen it all, there's nothing new under the sun
Derez De'shon, yeah, yeah

I gave my all to this shit now I'm feeling like the game owe me
A hundred young niggas looking up to me for a way out and I feel like everyt
