

Regret It

Derez De'Shon

I tried to tell 'em, they wasn't listenin' when I said somethin'
And I know all my exes miss Derez now
And I used to be broke but I got bread now
I was cursed when I was born, a nigga blessed now
They ain't feed me nothin' but the crumbs
They ain't leave me with nothin' but scars
Please believe me and trust me it was hard
Hit my knees and I looked up to God
Fell in love with some bitches, had love for some niggas that wasn't really
with me
I didn't know that existed and none of my niggas would say that I miss you

Guess I was too loyal to believe it
Gave more than what I was receiving, yeah
I gave all I had when I really didn't have it
But still I was there when you needed me
Don't want it back, you can keep it
I don't want it back, you can keep it
I know I figured the puzzle but somebody done came in and scattered the piec es, yeah
I was focused on finding a man in me
I was starving when niggas was fat, being greedy
I never argued, I followed the leader
Kept all my problems in secret, I swear my heart was in pieces
Don't wake me up if I'm dreaming 'cause if I ain't dreaming
Every day I wake up chasin' the dream, it get harder to see
Baby mama callin', textin', sayin' she stressin', bitches callin', bein' pet ty
Shouldn't let her in but I let her, thought we'd be friends forever, should'
ve knew better
In your feelings talkin' reckless, these niggas so disrespectful, I'm playin'
' chess, never checkers
Stay with my day one niggas, fuck the extras, it's DZ forever

I tried to tell 'em, they wasn't listenin' when I said somethin'
And I know all my exes miss Derez now
And I used to be broke but I got bread now
I was cursed when I was born, a nigga blessed now
They ain't feed me nothin' but the crumbs
They ain't leave me with nothin' but scars
Please believe me and trust me it was hard
Hit my knees and I looked up to God
Fell in love with some bitches, had love for some niggas that wasn't really
with me
I didn't know that existed and none of my niggas would say that I miss you

Run up a check, skrrt in a 'Vette, bitch give me neck now
Know the respect, ain't no respect, if you feel left out
My only regret was lovin' my ex, no hidin' my text now
Looser the lip, slicker the neck, I heard what you said 'bout me
I'ma make sure you jealous and fuck all your friends, let 'em tell you 'bout me
I'ma make sure that all of them niggas you fuckin', you tell 'em about me
But make sure you tell 'em ain't nothin' but killers and shooters around me
And make sure you tell 'em that all my young niggas they shootin' about me
What you thought, I was gon' let you forget about me?
You think I don't know that them captions on all of your pictures 'bout me?

What you think, I don't know that you lookin', lurkin', tryna see about me?
I'ma make you feel like you ain't shit every day that you be without me

I tried to tell 'em, they wasn't listenin' when I said somethin'
And I know all my exes miss Dereez now
And I used to be broke but I got bread now
I was cursed when I was born, a nigga blessed now
They ain't feed me nothin' but the crumbs
They ain't leave me with nothin' but scars
Please believe me and trust me it was hard
Hit my knees and I looked up to God
Fell in love with some bitches, had love for some niggas that wasn't really
with me
I didn't know that existed and none of my niggas would say that I miss you

I promise you gon' regret it
I promise you won't forget it, yeah
I promise you gon' regret it
I promise you won't forget it, no
