

Uneven

Derez De'Shon

How many times I gotta show you I'll ride for you
Gotta show you I'll die for you until you believe me
This shit starting to feel uneven
Them nigga shot at you you wit shoot back but I did
And I ain't gotta life to give plus I got 5 kids
But the crazy thing about it is I'll do it again

When does being loyal become too much
When you laying in that soil they prolly want even pull up
Trust me I know I done seen it too much
Swear to God that that shit make me sick to my stomach
Why I'm supposed to die for this shit
When you ain't slide you pick sides you ain't ride for this shit
And you supposed to be my brother but you lied to me
And I stood right there by your side like we was Siamese twins
(yeah)
Now we disconnected watching you on ig I feel like I been neglected
I been goin thru shit you ain't even call to check me
I stand on my morals niggas talking bout they stepping
And they ain't stood on nothing
I been dolo in this world just me and my weapons
No friends or family praying that God protect me
100k put dunk on my necklace
Derez De'Shon
100k put dunk on my necklace
100k put dunk on my necklace

How many times I gotta show you I'll ride for you
Gotta show you I'll die for you until you believe me
This shit starting to feel uneven
Them nigga shot at you you wit shoot back but I did
And I ain't gotta life to give plus I got 5 kids
But the crazy thing about it is I'll do it again
