

What's Changed

Derez De'Shon

Most of my old friends acting brand new with me, what changed?
A couple whips, a couple chains
A couple watches and some rings
A lot of my old bitches acting brand new to me, what changed?
Since a nigga got some fame
These bitches don't fuck me the same

I woke 'em up while they was yawning
I got the sack while they was snoring
God made me important
My momma didn't get that abortion
5 bedroom house and that bitch is enormous
Got a house so big I swear that I keep hearing voices
Echoing like it's haunted
I cherish everything that came with it
14 carat gold, I'm chain dipping
Ankle bracelet, bracelet chain whipping
Gave you my heart and the game's riches
Never gave my heart to lame bitches
You niggas can not walk a mile in my shoes
Vette and I'm lane switching
My [?] still got some stains in 'em
Got it out the mud, I can't forget it
So many drugs that I can't remember the last time a nigga had feelings

I'm sipping codeine like it's normal
I'm popping Xannys like it's normal
I'm walking round this bitch like I'm a zombie but it make the pain feel normal, yeah

Most of my old friends acting brand new with me, what changed?
A couple whips, a couple chains
A couple watches and some rings
A lot of my old bitches acting brand new to me, what changed?
Since a nigga got some fame
These bitches don't fuck me the same
Most of my old friends acting brand new with me, what changed?
A couple whips, a couple chains
A couple watches and some rings
A lot of my old bitches acting brand new to me, what changed?
Since a nigga got some fame
These bitches don't fuck me the same

Since I got me a little fame
These bitches don't fuck me the same
They call me by my first name
I got the world screaming my name now
A lot of my niggas done changed
A lot of my niggas are hating
A lot of my niggas were waiting
A lot of my nigga were praying I make it
I made it
And shit seem different, it don't feel the same
The way that I'm dreaming it don't seem the same
The way that I need it it don't feel the same
The way that I seen it
Yeah I admit, I need it

That purple had me in my feelings
Even my family tripping
Everything seeming so different
Even the niggas that's with me
It's funny cause money change everything for niggas you grew as a kid with
To the bitch that you say you in love with Wanna marry and have kids with

I'm sipping codeine like it's normal
I'm popping Xannys like it's normal
I'm walking round this bitch like I'm a zombie but it make the pain feel normal, yeah
