

Love Is Here

Des'ree

I hear a song,
Drifting on the horizon
The melody is so sweet, so sweet
Who composed the tune?
It lifts my heart higher
I sit down to retire
And hear what it has to say

Love is here,
I don't want to lose it no
The tune it was so inspiring,
It kept my body rising,

Absorption taking place
The melody so lovely,
The tune it was so subtle
The world's a wonderful place

I see him now,
The clouds begin to disperse
To reveal a wonderful presence,
A presence full of love
He is so lovely,

Standing there looking after me
Seeing just how I feel,
The presence of love itself
Dumb, dumb dumb, duh duh dumb
