

Ruby With The Sharpest Lies

Des Rocs

Three, two, one
Ruby's holding a gun
But you won't know it till you're dead on the ground

Four, five, six
Ruby look what you did!
There's no one left to say a prayer for you now
(Like I deserve it!?)

Good luck on healing your bridge and tunnel blues
Until then here's a drink to our impending doom

You told the sharpest lies
Yeah you carved 'em in my skin
And when we say goodnight
I know you'll kill me with a kiss
Yea it goes something like this

Seven, eight, nine
You're pretending to cry
And I'll surrender to the tears in your eyes
(Flip the switch, cut the power to this bitch!)

Ten more tries
But I'll never survive
Cause I'm damned if I do, and I'm damned if I don't without you

Good luck on healing your bridge and tunnel blues
Until then here's a drink to our impending doom

You told the sharpest lies
Yeah you carved 'em in my skin
And when we say goodnight
I know you'll kill me with a kiss
Yea it goes something like this

Cause I'm damned if I do and I'm damned if I don't Without you

You told the sharpest lies
Yeah you carved 'em in my skin
And when we say goodnight
I know you'll kill me with a kiss

You told the sharpest lies
Yeah you carved 'em in my skin
And when we say goodnight
I know you'll kill me with a kiss
Yea it goes something like this
