

Devil's Sword

Desaster

Never forget the roots, this song is done in honour of the godfathers of unholy metal. the beginning rules supreme !

once a sword was forged in hellfire to bring all the evil to men hate, death and destruction should be spread on earth an edge harder than all forged with the wrath of satan the prince of the underworld awaits now his return damned into the abyss black creatures formed the steel his origin in his power nothing resists his stroke prepared in endless hours ready to serve the lord leave the empire of satan to fight the world of god blood is freezing in my veins your wrath reigns in my soul i raise my armand say:

I FIGHT WITH YOU ...
