

Battalion of Insanities

Deserted Fear

The battalion of insanities watching over mankind Pestilence, suffocation will reach for every lie Disabled people will start a hellish cry and now I wait for you to die

To die!

Extinction of live, be pest or be hate

Bombs are crashing down to earth and no one will survive Diseases sneaking there around, beat you to underlie Satanic blasphemy casts a shadow on humanity and now I wait for you to die

To die!

Chaos, destruction, fire, death, all will feel that survive is senseless
Anarchy has broken out there, nightmare creatures come out of t he darkness
Chaos, destruction, fire, death, all will feel that survive is
senseless
Torture is the agenda there, chains rattling through the whole dark biosphere

Biosphere
