

Fall from Grace

Deserted Fear

Don't take me, I bite the nail
Dark forces pushing and trail
Come forth and fuse it in
The messiah is dead and his blood long stained

Come face me
You fierce maggots
I step in
To shed your skin

I may fall from grace
I can't believe that this can be the case
Right now you fly away
So keep your head up
Step up to stay

You pushed me, pushed me too far
My will is marching to war
I'm done and full of wrath
Time for your saints to pay
Ready to leave the path

Come face me
You fierce maggots
I step in
To shed your skin

I may fall from grace
I can't believe that this can be the case
Right now you fly away
So keep your head up
Step up to stay

Now bleed
Waiting for the blinding light
The inner self tormented spite

I may fall from grace
I can't believe that this can be the case
Right now you fly away
So keep your head up
Step up to stay

I may fall from grace
I can't believe that this can be the case
Right now you fly away
So keep your head up
Step up to stay
