

Forging Delusions

Deserted Fear

Thirst of the world and your world will be down
The might and the greed prevail
Divided we fall
Reminded by the past

This is mutilation
'Cause none escapes the self

Heart of the force and the word of the storm
Rule us with laws but in vain
They fall upon, the riot is on
The day of the victory

This is mutilation
'Cause none escapes the self
Massive violation
I'm caught in infinity

On battlegrounds
Souls slithering away
Filled with dears
Center of decay
Forging the delusion
You're selfish and desolate
Becoming retribution
Evocate the apostate

This is mutilation
'Cause none escapes the self
Massive violation
I'm caught in infinity
