

The Edge of Insanity

Deserted Fear

Persistence won't last, regain our lost ground
Incantations are calling ruptured fields
Where crossfires take my breath away

My nightmares won't stop redeem all my sleep
To the edge of sanity it's closing in
All these demons took my breath away

This is the hell I have chosen
Gnawing fear of the unknown

My nemesis, colored black with emphasis
There's no resistance, watch my innards bleeding night and day
In self-defeat, caught with my enemies
Ain't no resistance, watch me bleeding night and day

I slide to the edge, remember the path
Sharpening mind and body
These fluids boil
My skin color turns from white to grey

Jaws seek for flesh, the lust in my eyes
Human turns into monster
Untamed and unleashed
My eyeballs turn from white to grey

My nemesis, colored black with emphasis
There's no resistance, watch my innards bleeding night and day
In self-defeat, caught with my enemies
Ain't no resistance, watch me bleeding night and day

Listen to their battle cries
Avoid the light of day
False prayers and false laments
I fall into the fray

Across these fields, I feel my soul
Persistence growing insight of me
The force behind, it drives me blind
For today, I close my eyes

My nemesis, colored black with emphasis
There's no resistance, watch my innards bleeding night and day
In self-defeat, caught with my enemies
Ain't no resistance, watch me bleeding night and day
