

Fallen Ones

Despised Icon

We fear the truth buried within ourselves
An unbreakable spell
Into the Void
Minds drifting through colourless landscapes
Failed to escape the Reaper's call
Plunged into the Void

Fallen Ones
We pay tribute to those who bore the cross
Fallen Ones
Roamed together for weeks
And now you're six feet deep
Fallen Ones
A memory burning bright through the culture
Sanctified from every single sin
A life's work, the product of your suffering
So much despair in that laughter
Fallen Ones
A memory burning bright through the culture

Oh, so devastated
Conversing with the sky
Wishing you'd answer back
Ignored the signs
Oh, so devastated

Down below up above
Mingling with the Gods
The Fallen Ones

A pillar of strength for us all
Your foundation collapsed
Another relapse, up against the wall
Failed to escape the Reaper's call
Into the Void

Ascending from mortal to mythical
You've reached your final form
Your final form
Found peace after the storm
Candles are lit

Drinks are poured for your tormented souls
Sanctified from every single sin
A life's work, the product of your suffering
So much despair in that laughter
Fallen Ones
A memory burning bright through the culture
Fallen Ones
Roamed together for weeks
Fallen Ones
