

Unbreakable

Despised Icon

I am unbreakable

Grab my hand, not my arm
Gave you an inch
Now, you want to take a mile
Empty smiles, forced favours
Sure, I'll drop everything
Every time you snap your fingers
No, won't let it faze me
Nothing can drain my energy
I've finally shed my skin
For every single sin, I have paid my dues
Calm, collected
Stand up straight
Tried and tested
Calm, collected
Stay cold

Unpaid bills, passed deadlines
Flames everywhere
Let it burn, I'll be just fine
Chances are looking slim
Knew the odds, took the risk
Made your bed, now lie in it
Never better, grind forever
No hand outs, no saviours
Won't let it faze me
Nothing can drain my energy
I've finally shed my skin
For every single sin, I have paid my dues
Calm, collected
Stand up straight
Tried and tested
Calm, collected
Stay cold

Under pressure, I once trembled in the face of adversity
All my prayers still unanswered, I found the courage within Stand up straight. Stay cold
Unbreakable
Unbreakable
Lost my grip one too many times and I refuse to revisit that road
Unbreakable
Swore an oath to rebuild myself
A new foundation, strong and stable
Spread my wings like a bat out of hell
Can't slow me down, I am unbreakable
Unbreakable
Let the chaos flow right through my soul
Anxiety's now under control
