

Clueless

Destin Conrad

Sometimes I be thinking back, when I was younger
I was 17 with a head full of wonder
Yeah
I worked at vans for the whole damn summer
I wasn't trynna sell shoes
I was trynna get yo number
Took a whole check and spent it all on some dumb shit
Met a French girl and she taught me how to tongue kiss
I even remember when I bought my first Trojans
Rolled it back and said Fuck these emotions
Yeah

Oh what I'd give
To be that damn Clueless again
Oh what I'd give
To be that damn Clueless again

'Cause everyday's feeling like I got way more issues
If I could hit rewind one time
Would it be that simple

What I'd give to not know everything I know now
Be so ignorant 'cause that shit bliss
Ain't no pride in feeling this
Wait, but there's some things that I can still figure out
(Figure out)

I was 17
Got a lil job selling t-shirts out of Miami
Then I moved back
Back to LA
I knew, right then on that plane I was in for a ride
So much to do, so little time
But what I'd give to...

Oh what I'd give
To be that damn Clueless again
Oh what I'd give
To be that damn Clueless again

'Cause everyday's feeling like I got way more issues
If I could hit rewind one time
Would it be that simple

Clueless again
What would I give to be Clueless again
(Damn Clueless again)
Sometimes I be thinking back, when I was younger
I was 17 with a head full of wonder
