

NOSEBLEED

Destin Conrad

Mm-mm

Nosebleed, it's so me
It's getting even harder to hide
And if someone asked me of the old me
So lonely
All this looking up is blowing my mind

This happens all the time, I read between the lines
Your name is on the tip of my tongue
And the conversations that don't have a thing
To do with you and I
I'm embarrassed all the time
Ashamed you gotta see me with this

Ashamed you gotta see me with this nosebleed
It's so me
It's getting even harder to hide
And it reminds me of the old me
So lonely (So lonely)
All this looking up is blowing my mind

It happens all the time, your world and mine collide
And the memory of you stays on my skin
It doesn't fade, it gets stronger than it seems
Grips into my bloodstream
Please, don't look at me

Ashamed you gotta see me with this nosebleed
It's so me (So me)
It's getting even harder to hide
And it reminds me of the old me (Old me)
So lonely (Lonely)
This looking up is blowing my mind

(Nosebleed) Nosebleed, yeah-yeah
This looking up is blowing my mind
My ind, my mind
