

SAME MISTAKE

Destin Conrad

Why you always wanna play games?
Night time you're mine, and daylight you act like you don't even know my name
Hurts me to say it
But I gotta move on
What you want me to say?
I thought I could become the type of guy that you're looking for
But maybe I'm not good enough for you

Now that love is almost gone, I fall, I get better
Fall again, I been on one, lost control of the way
The way I feel about it, but

Same mistake
Same mistake

The nighttime brings promises I can't keep
Giving in is the one thing that I don't need
Got ahead of myself, gotta retrace my steps
'Cause I lost me the moment I took a piece of you
And you may never believe, but I'm sorry
I never meant for it to go this way
Only wanted the best and I'm sticking to my story
This was a moment for me
And this was all it could be

Now that love is almost gone, I fall, I get better
Fall again, I been on one, lost control of the way
The way I feel about it, but

Same mistake
