

How you feel

Destination Anywhere

Some people try to get around to see the world,
Others say they need their time at home.
Me for myself I never knew
I'm walking down an avenue
And I hope I'll find a place before I'm gone

Don't tell me that I'm overbearing
I can't stop myself from hearing
Many words by many people
Trying to be comfortable

The more I hear the less I know
Living is a fake pop show.
No one knows exactly where to go!

Can you tell me how you feel?
Can you make me feel that, too?
Come on tell me how you feel.
Can you tell me how you feel?
Is it right and is it good?
Come on make me feel that, too.
Come on make me feel that, too!

I always knew how good it feels to be alone.
Now I know it's also good to share
And to be kind and just some time
To try to step over the line
That I had for myself,
to keep letdowns away.

Don't tell me that I'm egocentric
Do not say I'm no romantic
Try to change the stiff perspective,
I just cannot be receptive.

The more I hear the less I know
Living is a fake pop show.
No one knows exactly where to go

Can you tell me how you feel?
Can you make me feel that, too?
Come on tell me how you feel.
Can you tell me how you feel?
Is it right and is it good?
Come on make me feel that, too.
Come on make me feel that, too.

Don't tell me that I'm overbearing
I can't stop myself from hearing
Many words by many people
Trying to get more

Can you tell me how you feel?
Can you make me feel that, too?
Come on tell me how you feel.
Can you tell me how you feel?
Is it right and is it good?

Come on make me feel that, too.
Come on make me feel that, too!
