

Holy Ghost

Destiny Rogers

You should save your breath, go on and waste it on another
Tired of the games you play, just save it for some other girls
Not another girl, sorry that I burned ya
When you play with fire, boy, you know what's bound to happen
Shoulda seen it coming when I handed you the matches
Ashes, ashes, you came crumbling down (Down, down)

Washed away in the rain
What we could have been

I swear on my mama and the Holy Ghost
Baby, I don't want you anymore
You want me, I don't want you, I ain't gon' be
Picking up the pieces, picking up the pieces
Couple shots to the heart, that's the way it goes
Baby, I don't want you anymore
You want me, I don't want you, I ain't gon' be
Picking up the pieces, picking up the pieces

Flush away the memories, don't want you in my system
Loving you's the enemy, and I won't play the victim, no
No, no
Who you playing with now?

Washed away in the rain (Rain, rain)
What we could have been (What we could have been)

I swear on my mama and the Holy Ghost
Baby, I don't want you anymore
You want me, I don't want you, I ain't gon' be
Picking up the pieces, picking up the pieces
Couple shots to the heart, that's the way it goes
Baby, I don't want you anymore
You want me, I don't want you, I ain't gon' be
Picking up the pieces, picking up the pieces

You should save your breath, go on and waste it on another
Tired of the games you play, just save it for some other girls
Not another girl, sorry that I burned ya

Baby, I swear on my mama and the Holy Ghost (Yeah, yeah)
Baby, I don't want you anymore
You want me, I don't want you, I ain't gon' be
Picking up the pieces, picking up the pieces
Couple shots to the heart, that's the way it goes (Ooh)
Baby, I don't want you anymore
You want me, I don't want you, I ain't gon' be
Picking up the pieces, picking up the pieces
