

Outside

Destiny Rogers

I been protecting my energy
I been on some self love shit
Since you and me split
I don't know what's got into me
But it feel like the sun hit differently
Cause I'm the one but I ain't the one
That you wanna play with baby
When I'm done bitch you know I'm done
Had the conversations

I might hit the club for the weekend
If you see me ain't no need of speakin'
Tell your friends we broke up for a reason
I'm at the four seasons for all four seasons

Cause I'm outside
Skin glowin', hair in the wind
Cause the wind blowin'
I'm outside
I'm back and I'm better
Tell them mad hoes it's whateva
I gave you time now I see
It's best to do me for me
I'm outside
And yeah I know you bitter
Cause ya new bitch could never

I'm a bad bitch don't tell me
You should prolly lose my number
Cold cold summer
In ya head livin' rent free
Baby girl go on evict me
Cause I'm that girl but I'm not that girl
Yeah I know my worth
Run it up then I add checks
I deserve yeah I deserve
Anything I want
That ain't no cap just facts
You done realize what you were losin', huh?
Caught up in a lie I get confusing, huh?
I come up a lot in conversation
Bet chu mad because I got em choosin'

Cause I'm outside
Skin glowin', hair in the wind
Cause the wind blowin'
I'm outside
I'm back and I'm better
Tell them mad hoes it's whateva
I gave you time now I see
It's best to do me for me
I'm outside
And yeah I know you bitter
Cause ya new bitch could never

If I did you like you did me
I wonder if you'd still try to be friendly

I hope somebody pulls a you on you
So you know what it feels like when they do
Stop checkin' on me
You know I'm good, you know I'm good, yeah
I put my focus on me
Jus like I should, jus like I should

Cause I'm outside
Skin glowin', hair in the wind
Cause the wind blowin'
I'm outside
I'm back and I'm better
Tell them mad hoes it's whateva
I gave you time now I see
It's best to do me for me
I'm outside
And yeah I know you bitter
Cause ya new bitch could never
