

Single Again

Destiny Rogers

Someone take my phone
Don't leave me alone
With these drunk thoughts
Passwords and these able thumbs, I'm gone
And I've been drunk so long
That my ex starts looking like a sex star look alike
And this boys lookin' like a good start for the night
I picked a wrong time to start living right didn't I?

Now everything's broken my heart and the promises
We both got some secrets we hide that we won't admit
Sometimes I wished that you had just cheated
But since we still in love then it's hard to be

Single, single, single again
It's been 2 years I don't wanna be
Single, single, single again
When did my friends become your friends?
Either give me my world back
Or come get your girl back
Don't let me mingle, mingle, mingle with them
Why am I single again?
Why am I single again?

Yeah I left some things unsaid and some texts on read
But I let you stay in my head though you don't pay rent
I just let you choose but you choosin' wrong
You know I'm the move but you moving on Shouldn't be here in the first place
We said we stay cool in the worst case
Yeah yeah well the worst came
And feelings didn't leave when it first came
I see yo IG I'm like who is these bitches?
You out here actin' brand new with these bitches yeah
And it's cool if we're finished, but as soon as we're finished
It's like you start missing me
I'm a fool cause I let you play my heart like a violin
Sad song cryin' when I'm

Single, single, single again
It's been 2 years I don't wanna be
Single, single, single again
When did my friends become your friends?
Either give me my world back
Or come get your girl back
Don't let me mingle, mingle, mingle with them
Why am I single again?
Why am I single again?

You holdin' back
You want me back
You don't wanna be single again
You down bad
You found that
You don't wanna be single again
Said that you don't love me ur a liar
I'm top 2 and I'm not 2 I'm higher

You can't pretend you can't let it in
You don't wanna be single

Single, single, single again
It's been 2 years I don't wanna be
Single, single, single again
When did my friends become your friends?
Either give me my world back
Or come get your girl back
Don't let me mingle, mingle, mingle with them
Why am I single again?
Why am I single again?
Why am I single again?
