

Yellow Notepad

Destiny Rogers

This yellow notepad
It knows all the things that I would say to you
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Copy and paste it
But I hesitated
Never sent it through
Ooh ooh ooh

Got off the phone and started writing
I'd never say the things that I've been typing
Like I'll come back to you as fast as lightning
Like I'm wishing we were older
Wish that we had some better timing
You know I'm really trying I'm trying

You know I dream of
You every night you know for real
For real

This yellow notepad
It knows all the things that I would say to you
Ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh
Copy and paste it
But I hesitated
Never sent it through
Ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh

I didn't know
I guess I'm clueless
One day were good and then you're ruthless
I never felt the love that you did
You were supposed to lift my spirit
But you didn't even move it
I'm fighting but I'm losing
I'm losing

How long I laid up
How long I stayed up waiting for you
Your mind is made up
Wish you could change up your point of view

This yellow notepad
It knows all the things that I would say to you
Ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh
Copy and paste it
But I hesitated
Never sent it through
Ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh

You know that lately I been sleepless
I'm broken inside

I thought you'd pick up the pieces
You know that you're my weakness
That's why you'll never ever get to read it

This yellow notepad
It knows all the things that I would say to you
Ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh
Copy and paste it
But I hesitated
Never sent it through
Ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh
