

Junk

Destroy Boys

My car exhaust clinging to the base
Shiny and lost with onion ring remains
Precious flowers lost within the hour
I guess you could say they were written to decay

Long and gone
Long and gone, long and gone, long and gone
Lost my junk again
Lost my junk again

Went too hard in the pit, had my little rabbit equipped
Wasn't paying attention and I didn't want to quit
I should've made my money but I wanted to sleep
And my boss told me it wasn't mine to keep

Long and gone
Long and gone, long and gone, long and gone
Lost my junk again
Lost my junk again

Lost my junk again
At the show on the freeway
Lost my stuff again
What a surprise on the freeway
Long and gone
Long and gone
Who knows where it went?
I don't know
Lost my junk again
What a surprise

Long and gone
Lost my junk again
Lost my junk again
Lost my junk again
