Destroy Boys

Who's the speed dial on your phone?
High and dry left on my throne
Are you a wolf that's lone?
I want and I need to know
The hairs on my neck stand up to salute
In my veins going straight to the roots
Scars are gone, but bruises remain
I can forgive your past and clean your stains

Redeem
Can you finally show that you've come clean?
No longer above me
Huh, honey
Redeem
Can you finally show that you've come clean?
No longer above me
Huh, honey

Heavy chest gets filled with bricks
The way you act makes me really sick
Old habits die hard, can't be kicked
Tired of monopoly, tired of these tricks
I used to ask people to listen
When it's my ass they should be kissing
Blind enough to not see what you're missing
You should be begging me

Redeem
Can you finally show that you've come clean?
No longer above me
Huh, honey
Redeem
Can you finally show that you've come clean?
No longer above me
Huh, honey

Redeem
Can you finally show that you've come clean?
No longer above me
Huh, honey
Redeem
Can you finally show that you've come clean?
No longer above me
Huh, honey

Redeem
Can you finally show that you've come clean?
No longer above me
Huh, honey
Redeem, come clean
Redeem, come clean
Redeem, come clean
Come clean
