Destroy Boys

I'm bored again
I want what I want
But it doesn't seem right
Head held high
Lanky body follow
Can you tell I'm feeling hollow?

You stride right in and you get on my nerves
But I won't say I'm disturbed because I want you to
You stride right in and you get on my nerves
But I won't say I'm disturbed because I want you to

I'm writing songs about us
Your velvet voice lingers
Slipped through each other's fingers
Look how hung up I am
When we go wrong, go wrong

You stride right in and you get on my nerves
But I won't say I'm disturbed because I want you to
You stride right in and you get on my nerves
But I won't say I'm disturbed because I want you to

Do you check my Facebook profile?
Are you looking at my Snapchat?
Am I going through your dreams?
Do you check my Twitter feed?
All I want to know: do you think of me?

You stride right in and you get on my nerves
But I won't say I'm disturbed because I want you to
You stride right in and you get on my nerves
But I won't say I'm disturbed because I want you to
