

Praying

Destroy Boys

Am I praying
Am I waiting to the kill
Am I the kill?
Am I praying

Wait a second, I have been this place before
I got out once and I'm coming back for more
I can see what you hide
And I've decided I don't want it in my life

This isn't love
This isn't love

Am I stupid
Am I an object waiting to be picked off the shelf
Always worrying about others and never myself
But I don't wanna live this way
Just appeasing the male gaze
I'm gonna do what I want my way

Wait a second, I have been this place before
I got out once. I'm not coming back for more
I can see what you hide
And I've decided I don't want it in my life

This isn't love
This isn't love

You must think that I can't tell
I can tell
I can tell

Wait a second, I have been this place before
I got out once. I'm not coming back for more
I can see what you hide
And I've decided I don't want you in my life

This isn't love
This isn't love
