Destroy Lonely

I just been pouring the codeine on my logos
Shawty going all the way down for that promo
I just put it all the way on, this ain't promo
My lifestyle going all the way up, I don't see no lows
I just update the swag and now these niggas download it
I just upgrade the stick, I add a scope, it help me focus
I upgrade my wrist, I call it Elsa 'cause it's frozen

I need help, I keep on flossing
Help is on the way for all these niggas 'cause they lost it Everybody already know who the boss is It smell like MFK and 41 when you walk in
She smell like new Chanel, yeah, she hell and she bossy
I don't really like talking, yeah, I been sipping on drink all day, shit exh austing
I been counting up all day this shit exhausting
That bitch shopping all damn day, this shit exhausting

I don't see no one, I'm getting money
Why you worried about me? I ain't worried about you 'cause you ain't nothing
Buy her tennis chains, not tennis shoes, and she love it
I look at her whole bottle of that juice and say, "I love you"
I look at a whole wad of that cash and say, "I love you"
I look at my FN, and say, "Baby, I love you"
Your closest friend will stab you in the back, yeah, that's what love do
And we been off the bullshit, but we been on them drugs too
