

which way

Destroy Lonely

I don't know which way I'm going
I take the purple Wockhardt and pour it
I bought some brand new new Rick Owens
I got a new bad bitch and she going
All the way up with me
Yeah, she the finest hoe in her city
I gotta go, go, go, right now
If I up the fire, fuck nigga get down
I shoot the shot like what's that sound?
I'm riding around with the stick right now
I went to go bust down
My chain, ring and earring brazy
I can't even hear what you saying
I put the hoe on a G5 plane

I'm on a G6 going insane
My brand new watch is an old plain jane
My brand new bitch in Balenciaga
My old hoe rock vintage prada
I can get you channel no problem
Calling my jeweler I want some diamonds
I keep going these niggas can't stop me
I'm way too B-I-G who shot you

I sip codeine, I don't sip liquor
My young nigga been pulling them triggers
My new bitch can't touch my figures
These niggas dead ass broke but I'm getting so richer
I had to crop them out the picture

All these niggas tryna be like me
All these bitches tryna fuck on me
Honestly I can't get no sleep

I don't know which way I'm going
I take the purple Wockhardt and pour it
I bought some brand new new Rick Owens
