

Bloom

Destroy The Runner

How better it is
To bloom
Than to be buried alive
No one speaks
Your name
If you haven't died
The poison, the end
Can give you solitude
If you give it a try
Just open your mind
Clear your eyes
Take your head from the sky
Breathe it in
The oxygen
It's the last until you die
I'm tired
Let me sleep
Just give me
What I need
This madness
It's deafening
Take me away from everything
Close the door
I'm tired
Let me sleep
Cross the bridge
Into darkness
Nothing around me, it's silent
Forever laid to rest
I'm finally breathing this buried chest
And they say
Death comes
To those who wait
Well I'm not that one
I'm taking back this life
It was never a choice
It was never mine
It was never mine
Suicidal
Empty
Inside
And they say
Death comes
To those who wait
Well I'm not that one
I'm taking back this life
It was never a choice
It was never mine
And they say
Death comes
To those who wait
Well I'm not that one
I'm taking back this life
It was never a choice
It was never mine
I feel the earth
It's taking me in

This is where I came from
It's where I begin
I feel the earth
I feel the earth
Feel the earth
