

End Transmission

Destroy The Runner

Is this a broken heart? (Or self awareness?)
Is this the new me? (Or have I grown old?)
Black distant darkness
I've become heartless
I'm a broken satellite
End transmission
Cursing tomorrow cause I know I'll wake
Take, take, take, take this away from me
I feel the void inside of me
It's empty, it's empty
We're all afraid of the same thing
Take, take, take, take this away from me
This burden, this hurting
We're all walking
Drones
I feel myself floating away
To far to pull back in
End transmission
End this constant search
End transmission
Take away this lifeline
Cut the f**king cord
Cursing tomorrow cause I know I'll wake
Take, take, take, take this away from me
I feel the void inside of me
It's empty, it's empty
We're all afraid of the same thing
Take, take, take, take this away from me
This burden, this hurting
This burden, this hurting
This hurting
Take this all away
Take this all away
Take this all away
Cut the cord
End transmission
End transmission
End transmission
Cut the cord
Cursing tomorrow cause I know I'll wake
Take, take, take, take this away from me
I feel the void inside of me
It's empty, it's empty
We're all afraid of the same thing
End transmission
Take this away from me
