

Everything you gave to me
Well I don't want it
I'll watch it burn, it's my turn
To bring it to ashes
The way your fate will still remain
Long after the fire runs cold
Your words will die
And yet I will rise
Break your neck
With your crown
As I'm walking in the clouds
I'll come as rain
Wash away
What's been stolen now
Open the gates
And drown the merry
Storm this place
I'm getting higher and higher
I'm crashing your ivory tower
I'm getting higher and higher
I'm crashing your ivory tower
Let the pain and suffering
Of what you've spoken
Your words cannot mend
What actions
Have broken
The buran
The burden
These skies are burning
You'll see me rise up so high
I'll become the one who's flying
I'm getting higher and higher
I'm crashing your ivory tower
You'll never wake me in my dreams
I'll take it over with a sea
Of hate in me
If I should die before I wake
I pray it's your life
I could take
Cause I'm getting
I'm getting higher and higher
I'm crashing your ivory tower
Higher and higher
Higher and higher
