Destroy The Runner

I'm setting sail
For the darkest blue
Leaving behind what I thought was true
Mystics haunting me
I'll never look back
I'll brave the sea
Let the tide push me away onto promised grave
Leave nothing behind
No fear inside
Was this the great design?
I feel it sinking beneath my feet
Let the water fill my lungs as the ocean takes its fallen son
Lay me down underwater
Make no sound
Can't go farther
Why do I feel this way?
Sleepless, alone, don't pray
Lay me down underwater
Those rosaries bring no release
Every sinking bead is just another empty dream of ghosts over me
We're never free so find me underneath
Why can't I get past this
What's inside It's hopeless
I'm taking on water
I'm going farther
Lower the sails
Grab the Anchor
Embrace the waves, this salty grave
I'm going under
Lay me down underwater
Make no sound
Can't go farther
Why do I feel this way?
Sleepless, alone, don't pray
Lay me down underwater
It's pulling me down
It's pulling me down
It's pulling me down
It's pulling me down
Lay me down underwater
Make no sound
I can't go farther
Lay me down underwater
Make no sound
I can't go farther
Lay me down underwater
Make no sound
I can't go farther
Lay me down
Lay me down
Lay me down underwater
Make no sound
Can't go farther
Lay me down underwater
Make no sound
Can't go farther
