Suffer

Destroyer

No matter when
Don't matter where
You're gonna suffer
Suffer 'neath the weight of the grandeur
You're poisoning
Really poisoning
A drowning in the Trevi Fountain for no reason
The world's gotta know it was you, it was you
It was you, it was you, it was you, it was you, it was you

Hunting in the dark for an animal
All the girls got soul, and the boys got soul
And the man feels alive when the whim in her eye
Hit the tent where the accidents happen

Hunting in the dark for an animal
All the girls got soul, and the boys got soul
And the world's gotta know it was you, it was you
It was you, it was you

And no matter when
No matter where
You're gonna suffer
Suffer 'neath the weight of the grandeur
Don't matter when
Don't matter where
You're gonna suffer
Suffer 'neath the weight of the grandeur
Don't matter when

(You're gonna suffer)
(You're gonna suffer)
