

The Man in Black's Blues

Destroyer

When you're looking for nothing
And you find nothing
And nothing
Turns out as planned

When you're looking for something
In the palm of your hand
It disappears
Before your very eyes

When you're looking for nothing
And you find Nothing
Is more beautiful
Than anything you ever knew

When you're looking for something
That you know is through
It's like it flies away
Before your very eyes

Knock knock
Did you say who you come for?
Knock knock
Did you say who you come for?
