

The Same Thing as Nothing at All

Destroyer

Your entrance was its own Red Scare
You quote unquote the French au pair
Where did you invent this learned behaviour?

Same face, same body
Same version of the infinite

"Hey Mister, you wanna buy some diamond rings?"
Is what my neighbours say to me almost every day
Somehow hallucinating in this tub of shit

The chandelier struggles to light
Up the night

Pride comes before the fall
To have loved and lost
Is the same thing as nothing at all

I'm sick of reminiscing
I'm sick of women missing
In the dark light that hangs
O'er the low-backed side streets
Of dawn

That's life, a lot of near hits
Some misses
Dead Man Walking
Dead women being born again
It intends to see you in this particular light
It intends to see you

And it's the same thing as nothing at all
It's the same thing as nothing at all
It's the same thing as nothing at all
It's the same thing as nothing at all
