

Repent Your Sins

Destruction

Early they forced you to pray
That's why your youth was disarray
This forced path of god
Did let your once pure mind rot

The holy values you preach
The true humanity you teach
All the help you pretend to give
Just hides the fake life you live

Unstable dirty deeds under the table
You're a leech, you don't practice what you preach
Unstable dirty deeds under the table
You're a leech, you don't practice what you preach

Repent, repent your sins
In this godless act you are the kingpins
Repent, repent your sins
The end of the road where the pasture begins

Insight, reflection and remorse
All hiding behind those close doors
No repentance, no inspection, so much greed
The catholic church needs to retreat

Unstable dirty deeds under the table
You're a leech, you don't practice what you preach
Unstable dirty deeds under the table
You're a leech, you don't practice what you preach

Repent, repent your sins
In this godless act you are the kingpins
Repent, repent your sins
The end of the road where the pasture begins

Unstable dirty deeds under the table
You're a leech, you don't practice what you preach, you preach

Repent, repent your sins
In this godless act you are the kingpins
Repent, repent your sins
The end of the road where the pasture begins
