Uneven Numbers

Desultory

Can't decrypt this code - can't hear you, you scare me Repeating history, this silence is deafening Advancing backwards, still counting, still hoping Throw it all away - translucent and hollow

Can't give forgiveness now, it's tragic, pathetic Scriblling figures, no control, I'm in freefall No emotions left, just waiting for nothing Breaking me apart, replaced and forgotten

Once again - I'm standing here with nothing
Once again - I'm left alone
Once again - can't you feed this sorrow
Your soul will be standing right next to mine
