

Hell's Gonna Break Loose

Deuce

It's gonna break loose!

I fucking hate you
I thought that you pussies knew
No matter what you do
Hell's gonna break loose
Fuck what you've been through
The shit that you say too
No matter what you do
Hell's gonna break loose

I fucking hate you, re-fucking-placed you, bitch, I'm gonna rape you
I got the balls to f-face you with, I got dealt with the rage to derange you
Into weird shapes and God punched your ass in the face too
I'll straight up run up and mace you
Fuck this rap game, I hate you, hate what I made you
It takes too much to remake you
Fake you, take you and ache you
Break you, I wouldn't save you, I'd butt-fucking-rape you
I'd fucking break you, I wouldn't save you, I'd butt-fucking-rape you!

We're blowing up like the World Trade Center
Told you motherfuckers I'll be here forever
We're stronger now, more than ever
When it goes down, we ain't going down together
No!

I fucking hate you
I thought that you pussies knew
No matter what you do
Hell's gonna break loose
Fuck what you've been through
The shit that you say too
No matter what you do
Hell's gonna break loose

I shit on rappers like MGK and Marshall Mathers
They call me the clapper, I'm going bananas
Hannah Montana's shit's smelling worse than a port-o-potty canner
Oh man-ah, if you're a fan then shake that ass up against my banana
I'm not a copy-catter
I'm an Illuminati killer, swinging out at motherfuckers with batters
I'm madder than me with a ninemillimeter gat, this shit, it don't really matter
As long as I'm killing MCs till this clip is empty, fuck you faggots
I'm fucking killing MCs till this clip is empty, fuck you faggots!

We're blowing up like the World Trade Center
Told you motherfuckers I'd be here forever
We're stronger now, more than ever
When it goes down, we ain't going down together
No!

I fucking hate you
I thought that you pussies knew
No matter what you do
Hell's gonna break loose

Fuck what you've been through
The shit that you say too
No matter what you do
Hell's gonna break loose

You can't run, you can't hide, it'll take you
No matter what you decided, I'll break you
You can try to deny, but it makes you
I ain't living a lie, I'mma break through
The only thing in this place that'll save you
Is the same motherfucker that made you

I fucking hate you
I thought that you pussies knew
No matter what you do
Hell's gonna break loose
Fuck what you've been through
The shit that you say too
No matter what you do
Hell's gonna break loose

It's gonna break loose
It's gonna break loose
It's gonna break loose
It's gonna break loose
