

Shards

Deva Mahal

Bullets flew, you shot my heart
It was love from the start
The journeys made on aeroplanes
We couldn't be apart
We couldn't be apart

Lord, what did I do?
I'm talkin' to you
You won't even look me in my face

Answer your phone
I'm all alone
Tell me, baby, have I been replaced?

Whoa, when the pain subsides
There will remain the shards
Then will remind me of
Who you really are

I see you all around
How do I let go?
How do I let go?
Can't escape you even in my dreams
Tears we shed, kissin' in the snow
Whoa, in the snow
Guess we were never meant to be

Oh, when the pain subsides
There will remain the shards
Then will remind me of
Who you really are

Who you are
Who you are
Who you are
Who you are

Who you are
Who you are
Who you are
Who you are

Oh, when the pain subsides
There will remain the shards
Then will remind me of
Said, oh, baby
Who you really are

Woo-hoo
Woo-hoo
Woo-hoo
