

Worthy

Deva Mahal

After all your stupid complication
Did you think that out of obligation
I'd still be waiting for ya oh so patiently
(Best believe you got another thing coming)

Won't be asking "baby please, stand by me?"
Cause there ain't no home alone and I ain't crying
Sitting by the phones a waist of time to me
(Understand you're not the only one calling)

Not to say that I ain't got love for you
But after all of them things you put me through
It's only fair that I should need to see some proof

Already know, know that I am worthy (already know)
But you gotta show me (know that I am worthy)
Show me you deserve me (deserve me)
Oh, cause I'm tired
So tired, done with playing your games (done with playing your games)
If you want me (want me)
Better come running

Took a while for you to make your mind up
Weighed your options, had your moves all lined up
So confused, what the state you claimed to be
(If you're unsure, there's the door, won't wait to find out)

Won't be asking for excuses, baby
Cause I ain't here to be your "sometimes, maybe"
To and fro just ain't the show I came to see
(Wait too long, whistle's blown, now your times up)

Not to say that I ain't got love for you
But after all of them things you put me through
It's only fair that I should need to see some proof

Already know, know that I am worthy (already know)
But you gotta show me (know that I am worthy)
Show me you deserve me (deserve me)
Oh, cause I'm tired
So tired, done with playing your games (done with playing your games)
If you want me (want me)
Better come running

You say that you're sorry
And that you have grown
Then go and change your mind
Boy, that shit's old (ahh ahh)
Picked up the pieces
Stronger than before
If you're unsure (ahh ahh)
There's the door

Cause I already know, know that I am worthy (already know)
But you gotta show me (know that I am worthy)
Show me you deserve me (deserve me)
Oh, cause I'm tired

So tired, done with playing your games (done with playing your games)
If you want me (want me)
Better come running
