

Feeling

Devendra Banhart

I'm looking for a feeling
Hard to explain
I'm looking for a feeling
Might not come again

And when the night comes
Oh, how she comes
And when the night comes
Oh, how she comes

I'm looking for a feeling
I want to know
I'm looking for a feeling
That won't let me go

Closing my eyes
Wind and the rain
Holding an anguish
I can't contain

I'm looking for a kindness
I know is there
Trying to show me
It's everywhere

And when the night comes
Oh, how she comes
And when the night comes
Oh, how she comes

If I could be
Love without wanting
If I could be
Love without wanting
If I could be
Love without wanting
If I could be
Love without wanting
If I could be
Love without wanting
If I could be
Love without wanting
If I could be
Love without wanting
If I could be
Love without wanting
If I could be
Love without wanting
If I could be
Love without wanting
