I'm a lonely woman
Alone in the world
Drifting through town
Drifting through town

I was once a loved woman
Once was all that I knew
Far of all the (?)
Picturing the wound
I drove to the place
Scattered my remains
(?) through the canyon
(?)

I'm a lonely woman
Won't leave a trace
You won't remember my name
Won't remember my face

I'm a lonely woman
Alone in the world
Drifting through town
Drifting through town
Drifting through town
Drifting through town
```
