

Now All Gone

Devendra Banhart

I was amazed today
Bad quality
In the future with all
It's empty seats
I've never had no real
Sci-fi insight

Once in a while I feel
This way all the time
The very first life form
Tells me a joke
What was that thing you said
When nobody spoke?

Now all gone
Now all gone
Now all gone
Now all gone

What I right now believe
Is not actually fixed in reality
And so, and so
Deep in, deep in
Deep into the garden
Deep in, deep in
Deep into the garden

No one is left to say
Nobody's in
You must give up control
In order to win
Desires the house we're all
Still living in

Now all gone
Now all gone
Now all gone
Now all gone

Father is I forgot
Mother is pale blue dot
All tied up in a knot
And so, and so
Deep in, deep in
Deep into the garden
Deep in, deep in
Deep in to the garden

Now all gone
Now all gone
Now all gone
Now all gone
