

Pumpkin Seeds

Devendra Banhart

Oh
There's a lot of love
But not the kind I need
Have you ever made soup-out-of pumpkin seeds
There's a lot of skin and flesh i never should have seen
There's too many half-ways-in-betweens

There's a lot of stays
I think I wish I'd done
There's a lot of leaves my true love gave to me

There's a lot of stays
I think I wish I'd done
There's a lot of leaves my true love gave to me

There's a lot of birds
That people like to draw
There's a lot of sees
I wish I never saw.

There's a lot of birds
That people like to draw
There's a lot of sees
I wish I never saw.
