

Shown And Told

Devendra Banhart

Waking up you want to see
Who's it you want paralyzed
You see what you want to see
And until the end omnipotence [And its you that you've done hyp notized?]

There are corners of your home
You've never noticed before
There are corners of your own home
You've never noticed before

And you're numb and you're numb and you know that you're numb
And you're numb and you're numb and you know that you're numb

Taking out the you from me
The you that wants me paralyzed
The show and tell it all seemed to be
Has shown and told me, hypnotized

There are corners of your home
You've never noticed before
There are corners of your own home
You've never noticed before

And you're numb and you're numb and you know that you're numb
And you're numb and you're numb and you know that you're numb

Hermaphrodite stepfather
Just pollinate and don't bother the flower
My generous mother has set off to sail
Her genuflect offering faith in betrayal

There are corners of your home
You've never noticed before
There are corners of your own home
You've never noticed before
