

Scarred

Devian

Wretched hollow black eyes watching the lies
Seasons of insane
Hear them promise you all while poison salutes your fall
Die in pain
Coming down - our cult sets chaos free
Bring it down - man and beast to equality
Marching of ants - soon free in the remnants
Civilization falls
Death without disgrace bloodthirsty set ablaze a bonfire
Ten miles tall

Scarred in blood they'll make us drown
Revel in trust and let us down
Peel our skin, suck dry within
End in pain and hurt
Because they love it

Innocence scratched away you're pestilence and a day
In sleep you slit
Traacherous punic wares of broken lives the gran heir
Throne of shit
Coming down - in filth this world is drawn

Bring it down
And reek like the blood dripping from your teeth that stains the e unborn dawn
It brings joy as a traumatic loss, and they'll repeat the miser y
It brings peace as a behemoth, and they'll repeat the misery

Pain and hurt

Pale ghost-faced irreverence spreads the spawn of vengeance
All-out carnage reigns
Spinal shattered nerves - pig watch you die like you deserve
In pain

Scarred in blood they'll make us drown
Revel in trust and let us down
Peel our skin, suck dry within
End in pain and hurt

Revel in trust gone in the wind like dust
Revel in hurt bled like blood in the dirt
