

Afraid Of Loving You

Devics

don't say i'm afraid of loving you you're everything i've wanted to don't say m heart was never true everything i do, i do for you you can have me i'm yours 'til the end of the night you can take me i swear i won't put up a fight lay next to me and sleep a while we'll let the hours slowly pass us by whisper soft into my ear and promise me we'll lie forever here you can have me i'm yours 'til the end of the night
you can take me i swear i won't put up a fight
