

Ghost

Devics

Even though I'm a ghost
I can see you I'm a ghost
Even though your in a different world
I'm a ghost
And a different kind of girl

I see the lovers
Is that what you want?
If it is I'm gone

I love to float above you

Don't try to get too close cause

I see no reason
Is this what you want
If it is I'm gone

Happy home is waiting
For the ghost who knows that
One day he will find and bring her
Back to life
