

Heaven Please

Devics

heaven please i have fallen
On my knees and out of your arms
Take me back I am good now

Heaven please I have given
Everything to sing for you
Give some back love now

What's the game please stop pretending
That you don't hear me
Heaven please come down and save me
And bring that man to me

Heaven please I've been walking
Gates whose entrance i am denied
Let me in let me in now

Heaven sweet I am calling
At your feet I been true to you
Paid my due's say I'm through now

La la la la la...
