Nothing Hurts

Devics

you haven’t changed and neither have i
what you gave to me
is nothing you hide
it doesn’t work
and nothing hurts
more than this hurts
i was hoping you’d show me something the night of your show
i was floating around
i was a door for you
now see it and go through it doesn’t work and nothing hurts
more than this hurts
what you gave me was black and i’m giving it back
and you haven’t changed and i wasn’t lying
i wasn’t lying
