

Broken by the Cold

Devil You Know

Suffocate and do you know why?
Desperate to destroy the lies

Fatal words are gone
Empty threats are all you are
You're a living proof
Regret will seal your doom

You walk with the lost
Isolation, the only cost
How long will you last?
Suffer and deal with your past

Your secrets have nowhere, nowhere to hide

Taking what's left, the price to be alone
Can you hold, before you're broken by the cold?

When you lose all hope
Find yourself so far below
There's still light inside
Reach out and break through the tide

Your secrets have nowhere, nowhere to hide

Taking what's left, the price to be alone
Can you hold, before you're broken by the cold?

Broken by the cold, face your fears

You can face the fears, the signs are in your tears
How long can you hold, before it slips away?

Taking what's left, the price to be alone
Can you hold, before you're broken by the cold?
Taking what's left, the price to be alone
Can you hold, before you're broken by the cold?
